

Jack Lewis
Lewis Mediation
www.lewismediation.com

Jack started Lewis Mediation LLC in 2019 after practicing law as a litigator for 37 years. Before retiring from the full-time practice of law Jack participated in over 150 mediations and as of the beginning of 2023 Jack had mediated over 100 matters. Jack's mediation practice focuses on commercial, energy, personal injury, and environmental disputes, as well as select pro bono engagements involving disputes in church and other non-profit organization settings. He currently serves as a volunteer mediator for the Dispute Resolution Center in Montgomery County (Texas) and the Anglican Church in North America.

MEDIATION TRAINING

- Center for Public Policy in Dispute Resolution, University of Texas Law School “Basic Mediator Training” (40 Hours) January 2016
- Straus Institute, Pepperdine University Law School, “Mediating the Litigated Case” (40 Hours) July 2018
- Straus Institute, Pepperdine University Law School, “Apology, Forgiveness and Reconciliation” (17 Hours) July 2019
- Dispute Resolution Center of Montgomery County, TX, “Advanced Family Mediation Training (30 Hours) July 2020

EDUCATION, LEGAL EXPERIENCE & RECOGNITION

Jack obtained a B.S. in Chemistry from Moravian College (Bethlehem, PA) in 1977, and a J.D., cum laude, from Tulane Law School (New Orleans, LA) in 1980. After law school, Jack clerked for the Hon. Robert Matthews, Presiding Judge of New Jersey's Appellate Division and the Hon. George Arceneaux, Jr., U.S. District Court, E.D. of Louisiana. After his judicial clerkships, Jack practiced as a litigator in New Orleans for nine years in the areas of maritime, environmental, casualty and commercial law. He then joined Chevron's Law Department in Houston and during his 28-year in-house career held positions of increasing responsibility in the Corporate, Downstream and Upstream Litigation Groups where he obtained significant experience and success in the areas of commercial, toxic tort, environmental, oil & gas, employment, class action and personal injury law. Before retiring from Chevron in 2019, Jack served as the Managing Counsel, Upstream Litigation – North America, for nine years. In November 2018 the Institute for Energy Law honored Jack with its Lifetime Achievement in Energy Litigation Award. Jack is a member of the Texas and Louisiana Bars.

CURRENT COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Dispute Resolution Center of Montgomery County, Conroe, TX –Counsel to the Board and volunteer mediator.
- 25:40 - Chair, Board of Directors (25:40 is a nonprofit organization focused on assisting underserved children in rural South Africa survive the devastating impacts of poverty, disease and violence.)